REPORT OF THE INA SPRING BOARD MEETING

Plans for the INA to obtain reprints of the ANA Educational Slides were tabled. President Kenneth Benedict reported the possibility of Miss Eva Adams, Director of the US Mint, being the speaker at the banquet for the 1968 INA Convention.

A report on the survey on Judging rules was made by Eugene Morris. The highest percentage favored the point system, #2

Numismatic Information	35 points
Arrangement and originality	30 points
Comparative completeness with respect to the range and scope of exhibit	15 points
Comparative conditions	10 points
Rarity and/or value	10 points
TOTAL	100 points

Also the non-category over the category classifications were the most favorable. Suggestions included that if a display did not receive at least 60 points, the exhibitor would not be eligible for an award. This survey was merely taken for the purpose of passing on to the coin clubs, thoughts were expressed by members of the INA, Exhibitors and Coin Club Officers. These suggestions are in no binding or suggested by the INA that any club follow these suggestions. The INA will follow the ANA judging rules at the State Convention as was voted in 1965.

The new system of election of the Board of Directors will start with the acceptance of nominations on June 1st by 2nd Vice President, Dean Oakes. Rules will be printed in the May bulletin.

EDITOR AND PRESIDENT'S DESK:

The entire Board of Governors and myself had the pleasure of holding our spring board meeting in Ames at the Mid Iowa Coin-A-Rama held in the Holiday Inn. It was a real nice show and well attended and would like to congratulate Art Nelson and all the rest of the helpers involved. Also want to thank the board members for taking the time to attend the meeting. Different items were discussed a report in this bulletin. It may be a little premature but I might mention to possible candidates for our Board of Governors that our fall election is not too many months away and if you want to get on the ballot you better go out and petition some I.N.A. members. The state will be split into the seven congressional districts and eleven directors will be elected from the seven districts. Rules etc., will be printed in this bulletin at a later date. I am hoping this year that more people will attend our Saturday night banquet as it is quite possible we will be honored by the Director of the Mint, Eva Adams, as a guest. We had some trouble trying to get a quota of 100 people at the banquet last year. Plan to attend and send your reservation to the Des Moines Coin Club. I am also hoping that you all noticed the list of members numbers who are in arrears in their dues. If you haven't mailed yours in yet mail it to the secretary right away. We need you as well as your dues.
